

The Executive Women of Goizueta (EWG) and Georgia Executive Women's Network (GEWN) invite you to attend

The TIAW Global Partnership Forum 2006 Excellence in Leadership – Women Setting the Pace

November 9th – 11th
Hyatt Regency on Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia
Sponsored by: BellSouth and Intuit

Focusing on the theme of Leadership, this year's Global Forum will include sessions on how women impact and direct corporate boards, non-profits, small business, government, and international business.

Many exciting speakers have already been confirmed, including Haifa Al-Kaylani, Founder and Chairman of the UK-based Arab International Women's Forum; Judith Anderson, Author, Pathway to Corporate Nirvana and a guest columnist for Forbes magazine (New York); Bobbie Battista, Partner, Atamira Communications, former host, CNN anchor and host of Talk Back Live; Ann Cramer, Director, IBM Corporate Community Relations & Public Affairs; Marilynn Mobley, Senior Vice President, Edelman; Author, The Scoop on Media Interviews: How to be a Respected Resource Reporters and Producers Love; Claire Lewis Arnold, CEO, Leapfrog Services, Inc.; and Margot King, Founder and CEO of OnSite Recruiting Solutions, LLC, and creator, producer and host of Job Talk, a nationally syndicated radio talk show about career empowerment.

Just as captivating as the program content for this year's Global Forum is the venue of Atlanta, Georgia. We will begin our Forum on the evening of Thursday, November 9th with a Welcome Reception and a dinner event called a "Dine Around". As part of the Dine Around, you will be able to join a small group and enjoy your choice of one of Atlanta's celebrated restaurants. City-touring side trips will be available on Thursday and Saturday afternoons for shopping or visiting Atlanta's many key attractions such as the new Georgia Aquarium, CNN, the Olympic Park or The Carter Center. The annual awards dinner will be held on Friday, November 10th, and a distinctive luncheon keynote will conclude the conference on Saturday, November 11th.

Please pass along this newsletter or a "Save A Date" notice to your members. More information will be available shortly via the TIAW website, and a representative from the hosting organizations will soon contact each TIAW member association to discuss how to best promote the Global Forum to your members. We are looking forward to a spectacular 2006 Global Forum: Excellence in Leadership – Women Setting the Pace. We look forward to seeing you there!
